3 Forresters Walk

Backbarrow

A charming semi-detached cottage located in the village of Backbarrow. The property is close to local primary schools, doctors surgery, leisure club and local pubs and restaurants. Within the southern peninsular of the Lake District National Park ensures it has easy access to Bowness on Windermere, Conistone water, Cartmel, Ulverston and on route to the Western fells.

This stunning detached property, situated within the southern peninsular of the Lake District National Park, presents a unique opportunity for those seeking a tranquil yet convenient lifestyle. Boasting four bedrooms, this delightful home offers ample living space, featuring a cosy sitting room with a multi-fuel stove providing warmth during cold winter nights, while offering picturesque views of the rear garden. The property is equipped with double glazing and LPG heating for utmost convenience and efficiency. The light and airy kitchen is ideal for culinary enthusiasts, complete with a breakfast island and convenient access to the garage. Upstairs the four bedrooms are complimented by a family bathroom and the main bedroom has a en-suite bathroom as well.

Outside, the property offers beautifully well-kept gardens to the front and rear, providing a serene escape for relaxation and entertaining. The rear garden boasts a delightful patio seating area, perfect for enjoying al fresco dining with space for garden furniture, surrounded by potted plants. A well-maintained lawn stretches the length of the house, adorned with established trees and hedges for added privacy. The front garden showcases a well-stocked landscape flower bed, offering ample space for planting throughout the year. Notably, the property boasts a garage with ample driveway parking to the front, ensuring hassle-free parking for residents and guests alike. In addition, there is parking available across the street, providing further convenience for multiple vehicles.
